Redlight King
Something For The Pain (Acoustic)

I tabbed this from the acoustic version on you tube. check out the video n you won t have any trouble.
The bridge is easy to figure out. just bar the 8th,10th, and 11th fret

Drop D tuning
The B and A# are played as bar chords. Then the G,F, and D# bar the top 3 strings

Intro: G,B,A#,F x2

VERSE 1

G
Some days you get the feelin
Of hittin the concrete
A#
Get the strain out of your life,
F
What about your life
G
You re gettin nervous cause the purpose
B
Is hidden you can t see
A#
And the world s gonna pass you by
F
They ll watch you die
G
Hell I know it s all too easy
Getting caught in the dark
A#
When you re looking for the fix to fill
F
The hole in your heart
G
All alone this kind of life
B
It ain t no walk in the park
And I know it s gonna take some time
F D#

So I say

CHORUS

When the sun goes down F
Call my name G
Yeah When all the world around you s B A#
Just too hard to take F D#
If it helps you live F
I got something for the pain G
Yeah I got something B A#
Something for the pain F G B A# F

VERSE 2

It s funny how the devil s always playin his part G B
But you can t keep looking back A# F G
I m in so deep I m thinking why did I start B
And when you fall it happens all too fast hey hey A# F G
If they make you try and give up some names B
You don t wanna mess around A# F
Freedom lives don t let them beat you while G
They re breakin your back B
There ain t nobody gonna help you now A# F
So I say D#

CHORUS

When the sun goes down F
Call my name G
Yeah, when all the world around you s B A#
F D#

Just too hard to take

F

If it helps you live
