

The Wallet

Regina Spektor

G D
I found a wallet,
G D
I found a wallet
G Bm C D
Inside were pictures of your small family
C Bm C Bm
You were so young, your hair dark brown
C Bm C D
You had been born in 1953
G D G D
Your winter birthday was stamped on the plastic
G Bm C D
Of a license so recently expired
C Bm C Bm
I was so tired as I walked through my door
C Bm C D
I let all the contents of your wallet on the floor

G C
And like a holy relic
G C
Or a mystery novel
G C
I thumbed them in the dim light
G A
Searching for a clue-
C Bm
A Blockbuster card,
C Bm
An old stick of Juicy Fruit
C Bm C D
A crumpled receipt for a pair of leather boots

G D
I have no wallet,
G D
I have no wallet
G Bm C D
I keep my cards together with a blue rubber band
C Bm C Bm
And with a free hand I search in my pocket
C Bm C D
For pieces of, pieces of paper and change

G D
I ll take your wallet
G D
To my local Blockbuster
G Bm
They ll find your number
C Bm
in their computer
C Bm
You ll never know me
C Bm
I ll never know you
C Bm
But you will be so happy
C D C
When they call you up.
