capo on 4th frett
standard tunning

|--0-0-0-0-0---0---0---0---0---0-0-0-0-0---0---0---0-----|
|--1-1-1-1-1---1---1---1---1---1-1-1-1-1---1---1---1-----|
|--0-0-0-0-0---0---0---0---0---0-0-0-0-0---0---0---0-----|
|--2-2-2-2-2---3---2---0---2---2-2-2-2-2---0---0---0-----|
|--3-3-3-3-3---3---3---3---3---0-0-0-0-0---2---3---3-----|
|-----3-----|

that is what they do through the whole song but they do stop doing hammer on s after a while so listen when they stop and that is pretty much it at the i think i cant part or whatever just play the chords for the intro and if i knew the name of the chords i would tell ya

cool violin part (still with capo)

```

|-----|
|-----|
|-----|
|--2--2--2-2-2--3--2--0--2-----|
|-----3--3--3-3-3--2--3--5-----|
|-----|

without the capo the chords are

E Esus C#m7 B

E,022100 Esus,002200 C#m7,x46654 Bx24442

this song has two guitars and i think what they do is one plays with the capo and the other plays without the capo and they harmonize together well there yall go and plzz comment
