D|-0---0-----0---0-----

D C
I see your money on the floor, I felt the pocket change.

G A7
Though all the feelings that broke through that door

just didn't seem to be too real.

D C
The yard is nothing but a fence, the sun just hurts my eyes.

G A7 D
Somewhere it must be time for penitence. Gardening at night is never where.

G A D G A D G A D
Gardening at night. Gardening at night. Gardening at night.

Em F#m
The neighbors go to bed at ten.

Em F#m
Call the prayer line for a change.

Em F#m
The charge is changing every month.

Em D A D
They said it couldn't be arranged.

D C G
We ankled up the garbage sound, but they were busy in the rows.

A7 D
We fell up, not to see the sun, gardening at night just didn't grow.

D C
I see your money on the floor, I felt the pocket change.

G A7
Though all the feelings that broke through that door

just didn't seem to be too real.

G A D G A D G A D
Gardening at night. Gardening at night. Gardening at night.

Em F#m
Your sister said that you're too young.

Em F#m
They should know they've been there twice.

Em F#m
The call was two and fifty-one.

Em D A D
They said it couldn t be arranged.
