Renaissance - Forever Changing

(intro)

Dm7 D7sus2

Am7 Em/A Am7 Em/A

Am7 Em/A Am7 Em/A
Where we threw the stone The stream ran warm inside the sun

Am7 Em/A Dm7
Along the bank we walked So clear that day

Dm7
Worn by time, dust and weeds

Dm7 Am7 Em/A Am7 Em/A
Light and dark fell through the leaves

Am7 Em/A Am7 Em/A
Where we sometimes laughed So full of light and morning mist

Am7 Em/A Dm7
We walked beneath the trees So clear that day

Dm7
Stark in winter, shadows black

Dm7 Am7 Em/A Am7
Still in my mind, no turning back (We sometimes laughed the day we threw

Em/A
the stone)

Dm7 D7 sus2

D Em Em7 D

D Em Em7 D D Em Em7 D
Forever changing Light and dark horizons Always turning, moving on

D Em Em7 D D Em
Forever changing Near and far horizons And changes take the day

Em D
Forever gone

Where we sometimes were Our words still swirl all around

Whispers come and go So clear that day
Some tomorrow other words
Blend with ours, their voices heard And sometimes we heard our words that swirl and dance around
