

Waiting Room
Rex Orange County

This song uses multiple chord voicings for the same chords- I ve tried to be as detailed as possible in showing which shape to play where.

Probably pretty obvious when you listen to the song as well, but the Bmaj7 and C#m7 are plucked with the bass note alternating between B/A# and C#/C respectively.

There is also a passing note F is played between B/F# and Emaj7 in the [Outro Chorus]

Play with recording for exact picking patterns.
