

Down South
Rhett Akins

intro G Cadd9 G Cadd9

G Cadd9
Well the grass grows greener down south
G Cadd9
and the tea is sweeter down south G Cadd9
the girls are tanner down in lower alabama G Cadd9
we got them georgia peaches down south G Cadd9
way down south

they re brewing white lightning down south and the fish they re always biting down south the joints are juking and the soul food s cooking we get down on some grits down south chorus

F C G
Please play dixie when i die
F C D lay me down neath that mason dixon line we drink from dixie cups down south and we ll sure jack up a truck down south football s a religion and mama s always in the kitchen thats just the way it is down south well we got them crazy cajuns down south dont you feed them alligators down south you better watch your mouth when a woman comes around we love our southern belles down south

chorus

lay me down neath a big ole georgia pine well i was born and raised down south and im sure nough gonna stay down south write my name in stone when you bury all my bones im gonna rest in peace down south down south

G Cadd9 G Cadd9 and ad lib to end
