Verse 1

C Em Am F
My hair flows. Like a waterfall over a cliff that is my face.
C Em Am
My hair goes, heaven bound dirty blonde rockets into space.

C Em
My hair conceals my elf ears
Am F
They are a little bit embarrassing

C Em Am F
With hair is high, Im 6 foot nine making me a giant, technically speaking.
C Em Am
Well I can shake my hair and generate enough breeze to locomote a toy sail
F boat.

C Em
I would need no broom to sweep this room
Am F
If someone spilled honey bunches of oats.

Chorus

C Em
My hair goes up. My hair goes down
Am F
My hair goes up. My hair goes down
C Em
My hair goes up. My hair goes down
Am
Down(up) Down(up) Down(up) Down(up)

Verse 2

C Em
My hair pwns gravity

Am F
It makes Sir Isaac Newton question himself.

C Em Am
My hair looks rustic like Ive draped my head with a beaver pelt

C Em Am F
A momma bird lay some eggs up there; I didnt mind that much.

C Em Am
She raised them in my quaff til them birdies flew off, and we still keep in touch.

C Em Am F
I bet you didnt see my switch blade, or my iPad, or my chia tea

C Em
And with a little more growth, you want even know

Am F
I got a full size baby. A full size baby?

G C
Yah! Im gonna name him Ricky.

Em Am F
After your dad. Nope! I just always wanted to name a kid Ricky.

C Em
I would call him Richard, but Im probably being picky

Am F C
And why are you hiding a kid anyway?!

Em Am F
Well its actually just a robotic baby
What were we talking about?

Chorus

C Em
Your hair goes up. Your hair goes down

Am
Your hair goes up. Your hair goes
