

Sleepwalkin
Rhett Miller

Intro:

Em G D A

Em G

D

She was a genius
She won awards and stuff

Bm A

I was intimidated

D

She had a prominent nose
She took off all her clothes

Bm A

I was infatuated

G Gm D

The love we d share would go no where

D

But it would be none the less

G Gm D A

The time we spent I don t know where it went

D

We took the monorail
We had a pint of ale

Bm A

I got a little buzz on

D

Her movie made me cry
I could not tell her why

Bm A

Might be the pills I was on

G Gm D

I long to be the man that she

D

Wanted to be with

G Gm D A

The time we spent I don t know where it went

Em G

Don t mind me

D

I m just sleep walking

A

Sleep walking

Em G

Don t mind me

Verse Chords x2 (D Bm A)

D

The night we broke it off

I had a lousy cough

Bm A

I had no strength to argue

D

I knew I d rue the day

I let you slip away

Bm A

My genius, where are you

G

Gm

D

The love we had was small and sad

D

Like everything in my life

G

Gm

D

A

The time we spent I don t know where it went

Em

G

Don t mind me

D

I m just sleep walking

A

Sleep walking

Em

G

Don t mind me

D

I m just sleep walking

A

Sleep walking

Em

G

Don t mind me

D

I m just sleep walking

A

Sleep walking

Em

G

Don t mind me

D

(If anyone was curious, Rhett wrote this song about indie film director Lynn Shelton.

He said he was having trouble figuring out what to write about and flipped to a random page in a magazine. It happened to be her and he had seen her movie she made.

For the record, I think Rhett would like to clarify, for the sake of his marriage, he has never met Lynn Shelton. Let me know I messed anything up.

Happy playing)