Intro:
Em G D A
Em G
D
She was a genius
She won awards and stuff
            Bm
                   Α
I was intimidated
She had a prominent nose
She took off all her clothes
           Bm
I was infatuated
                     Gm
The love we d share would go no where
But it would be none the less
The time we spent I don t know where it went
We took the monorail
We had a pint of ale
              Bm
I got a little buzz on
Her movie made me cry
I could not tell her why
                                  Α
                         Bm
Might be the pills I was on
G
                  Gm
I long to be the man that she Wanted to be with
The time we spent I don t know where it went
Don t mind me
I m just sleep walking
Sleep walking

Verse Chords x2 (D Bm A)
The night we broke it off
I had a lousy cough
                    Bm
I had no strength to argue
I knew I d rue the day
I let you slip away
                    Bm
                              Α
My genius, where are you
                Gm
The love we had was small and sad
Like everything in my life
                                                      Α
The time we spent I don t know where it went
Em
Don t mind me
I m just sleep walking
Sleep walking
Em
Don t mind me
I m just sleep walking
Sleep walking
Em
Don t mind me
          D
I m just sleep walking
Sleep walking
Don t mind me

Don t mind me

(If anyone was curious, Rhett wrote this song about indie film director Lynn Shelton.

He said he was having trouble figuring out what to write about and flipped to a random page in a magazine. It happened to be her and he had seen her movie she made. For the record, I think Rhett would like to clarify, for the sake of his marriage, he has never met Lynn Shelton. Let me know I messed anything up.

Happy playing)
