

The Cricket Song
Rich O'Toole

A great red dirt song. Tabbed my Jaclyn.
Listen to the song for smooth strumming

(if you don't wanna use a capo the chords are:
E E A E. E E B7 E)

capo 2

Intro:
DDGDDAD X2

D. D. G. D.
The air last night was warm and moist

D. D. A. D.
In a dream I thought I heard your voice

D. D. G. D.
Well I went outside and started to sing

D. D. A. D.
The crickets were doing the very same thing

(chorus)
D. D. G. D.
Me and the crickets sing all night long

D. D. A. D.
Me and the crickets sing the same damn song

D. D. G. D.
A song of how love should be

D. D. A. D.
A song of how you should be with me.

(continue this pattern the rest of the song)

The crickets sing loud but they sing good.
The crickets sing like I wish I could.
I sing good but the crickets sing best.
Me and the crickets put the night to rest

Chorus

Well I wonder if the crickets know
Where love comes from and where love goes.
If they know they re not sayin a thing
All they do is sit here and sing.

Chorus

Yeah I really think you should be with me
Ask the crickets and they ll agree.
Yeah ask the crickets and they ll agree.
