F#

seeing the world through a bastards eyes

E

against my life it d feel real nice

F#

walking down corridors of ice

E

i know that it s thin but it still feels right

F# E

F#

slipping in and out of time

im glad you re in here with this rhyme

F#

life can be quick yet life can be short

E

don t lose my breath on any small talk

F# E

yeah live the walk walk the talk

F# A B

and i want you to feel

F# A B

these messages that seem so real

F# A B

and life passes before you know

F# A B E

the direction that you want to go

F# E

F#

look what i did to my paradise

E

the captain got lost but he had advice

F#

and now he's lost it he don't know what to do

E

he's lost his ship and he's lost his crew

F# E

he's lost his crew

F# A B

and i want you to feel

F# A B

these messages that seem so real

F# A B

and life passes before you know

F# A B E

the direction that you want to go

A B F#

guess that's always been the same

A B F#

guess that's always been the same

A B F#

guess that's always been the same

A B F#

guess that's always been the same

F# A B

and i want you to feel

F# A B

these messages that seem so real

F# A B

and life passes before you know

F# A B E

the direction that you want to go
