I know when I m losing control
I play I am the cosmos
And let the feelings roll

How long can I stay here?
How long can I pray here?
You know we ll meet in another place
You turn around and I see your face
Oh and what a fruit, what a tree you shall be
We ll be fed by the mountains, the crystal streams

Then we ll go for a walk
We ll hold hands and start to talk
Oh what a fruit, what a tree this love will be
You ll be fed by the mountains, fed by me
