Verse 1:

D
And when there s only one mountain to climb,
C/G
You can t take the mountain cause the mountain is mine,
D
As long as we hang on just one more day,
C/G
That is something they can t take away.

Verse 2:

D
You lead your children down suicide row,
C/G
Now all your children gotta reap what you sow.
D
Self - righteous suckers with your damn virtues,
C/G
You try and take me - and I ll take you -

Verse 3:

D

We come from China, we come from Japan,

C/G

We come from Sweden and the Netherlands.

D

Never surrender till that final dawn,

C/G

Never surrender till that dark cloud s gone.

Verse 4:

D

I hear the thunder from the distant shore,

C/G

Some crazy general s trying to keep the score.

D

We built this tower here in Babylon -

C/G

Just one big flash and it will all be gone.

Verse 5:

D

Some take their problems to the wailing wall,

C/G

Even though that faith may stumble and fall.

D

Muslims and Hindus and the Protestants,

C/G

Can t understand why we can t all be friends.

Verse 6:

D

Last night I had a strange, strange dream -

C/G

There was no politics - just you and me.

D

No more deceit from politician s lies,

C/G

Can t you see that I am on your side.
