

Mingus Eyes
Richard Thompson

Bm Bm D Bm
What a fool I was. What a thin disguise.
E G C Bm
Brando mumble, Mingus eyes

Was a time she fell, but then she got wise
Brando mumble, Mingus eyes

(Barre chord the next ones, D B G and Fm, then back to barring Bm)

D B D B
I never had the squint of James Dean, or the Stanislavsky tears
D B G Fm
Or the rebel hunch that kills, or the smile that slowly disappears

What a fool I was. What a thin disguise.
Brando mumble, Mingus eyes
Brando mumble, Mingus eyes

Just a Simple Part he plays between Bm and E, sorry bout the timing as i just did it on word.

E-----|
B-----|
G-----2-----2-- (*2-| Then below, then chorus.
D-----2-----4--4-----|
A--2--5-----|
E-----|

E

--|
B-----3-----3
-----|
G--4-2--4-2-----2-----2---4-4-2-4-1-2
-----| then E
D-----2-4-----2-4-----4-----
Brando--|
A

--|
E

--|

The harder improv bits I didn't do as it runs on the same kind of pattern.
I haven't been able to find a tab of this song and I decided to try myself and I hope this helps.

Any corrections please send to *