Rick Roberts Four Days Gone written by Stephen Stills

a cover of the Buffalo Springfield tune

C Bb F Am
I met two kind people on the road
C Bb F Am
I was parched I was dry from the cold
Bb Am
I ve been traveling for four days and nights sir
Bb Am
And I do want to thank you for the ride
Bb Am
And the soup your wife made tasted fine
D7 G7
But if it s all the same I ll be on my way at the next turn
C Bb F Am
I m three miles shy of my town

SOLO

Bb Am
And my baby s waiting I hope sir
Bb Am
After 15 trucks and an old Ford
Bb Am
This government madness I ran away
D7 G7
And I hate to say I can t tell you my name
C Bb F Am
I m four days gone into running

SOLO

D7 G7
And I hate to say I can t tell you my name
C Bb F Am

I m four days gone into running

C Bb C Bb

I can t even go home and take my baby and run

C Bb C Bb

I ve got reasons to live I ve got things I can give

C Bb F Am

And I m four days gone into running
