Julia Rick Wakeman Intro: G D A D D G/D Run - heart in my mouth A/D Run so hard that it beats D and repeats in my head like a gun G/D East - west, north and south A/D No direction to go D but I know that the ending s begun F# Bm I know I made a mistake coming here again E/G# Α But I had to remind myself of where and when D G/D We threw off our chains A/D Hid ourselves in ourselves from the world D and its organized hell G/D Now - nothing remains G/A D Barely a trace of the place where I knew him well Refrão G Down D Down he said get on the floor А And stay well away from the door D Or someone will see us for sure

G

And I

D

Loved him like no-one before

A Princess Madonna and whore

D Kept coming back for more

Solo: D G A D G A D F# Bm E/G# A

D G/D Run - goodness know where

A/D
I m a poor refugee

 $$\ensuremath{\textbf{D}}$$  and I might as well be on the moon

G/D

Still why should I care?

G/A D I had it all in one grand afternoon

(Refrão)

G I

 $$\ensuremath{\textbf{D}}$$  Feeling the death and decay

A Didn t expect him to stay

D Stay with me Julia stay

G

But I

 $$\ensuremath{\textbf{D}}$$  Only remember that day

A As ruler of all I survey

D And nothing can take that away
