

Aint No Trouble
Ricky Gervais

*The same chord progression is used throughout the song - C/G/C/Em/F F/G G.

It should be pretty easy to pick up the strumming pattern by listening to the song. Add steel drums and enjoy.

F	G
(Almost anything, XBox, wedding ring, fish tank, terrapin)

Rap: (Continue with the same chord progression; C/G/C/~~Em~~/F F/G G)

Poke me in the eyeball, pull out a gun
Say something spiteful about my mum
Tease my dog so he doesn't even know it
By going to throw a bone but just pretending to throw it
Make death threats, yeah, and I have to guess where
Then when I get there pull out my chest hairs
Headbutt me in the nuts if you want
Cus ain't no trouble like losing the one you love, c mon!

Chorus 3:

Ain t no trouble like the trouble, if you lose the one you love

Ain t no trouble like the trouble, if you lose the one you love (x2)
