

My Slumbering Heart
Rilo Kiley

Pretty much the same as the earlier one, but in an easier to read format, plus lyrics.

D
In my dreams
A
I see myself hitting a baseball
Bm
In a green field somewhere near a freeway
D A
I m all tan and smiling and running from 3rd base
D
And it s hot and
A
The kids keep on playing the driving game
Bm
And they re singing the same goddamn refrain
D A
And the sky is a blueish grey.

D A Bm
And its become just like a chemical stress
D Bm
Tracing the lines in my face for
D Bm
Something more beautiful than is there
A
I ve barely been gone.

D
In my dreams
A
I see you at the foot of some mountains.
Bm
And we re taking some pictures or something
D A
And we d better hurry up
D
And it s late and
A
The sun keeps on shooting through pine trees
Bm
And the grass stains are wet on your new jeans
D A

And we d better hurry up

D A Bm
And its become just like a terrible mess
D Bm
Tracing the lines in my face for
D Bm
Something more beautiful than is there
A
The crowds keep me coming back, cheering.

D A Bm D A
In my dreams
A
I see you asleep on a twin bed
Bm
The covers pulled up over your head
D A
Am I asleep or awake?
D
And it s morning
A
And the captain is playing the radio
Bm
And hes just put the paint on his new boat
D A
Am I asleep or awake?

D A
And it just feels good when you re waking up
D A
And it just feels good when you re next to me
D A
And it just feels good when you re coming home
D A
And it just feels good when it s waking up

D A Bm
And I ve become just like a chemical stress
D Bm
Tracing the lines of my face for
D Bm
Something more beautiful than is there
A
I ve barely been gone
D A Bm
and I m not a failure I swear
D Bm
I wish you could see it from over there
D Bm
I ve got a lot over here without you

A

I ve barely been gone

Bm

gone
