

Small Figures In A Vast Expanse
Rilo Kiley

I ve been looking for this tabs everywhere, but never found it. I ve decided to do it myself.

listen to the cd for rythmic figures.

(A)

let s try a new change
let s try a new change

(Ab) (F#minor)

let s try a new change

(Bminor)

then we ll go on back to the old one

(D) (Dminor)(A)

like we ve done so many times before

(A)

and i ll buy a new brain
i ll buy a new brain

(Ab) (F#minor)

you ll administer new pain

(Bminor)

then we ll go on back to our old school

(D) (Dminor) (A)

that we left so many times before

(E)

and you ll ask for more

(E)

and more

(A)

i ve just begun a new phase
i m trying these days

(Ab)

i ve watched you close

(F#minor)

i m versed in all your ways

(Bminor)

i m just beginning to realize

(D) (Dminor) (A)

i ll get you one of these days

but in the end

if it was all pretend isn t that what friends are for?

but this is real life

it s supposed to be real life

so let s pretend that we re not bored that we exist and that we re resolved to real things happening to me

2, 3, 4

I need more time to figure out the concluding chords to the song.

e-mail me for more tabs.
