

House On Fire
Rise Against

I can see the storms, in her eyes now
I m falling overboard, in the waves
In over my head and she s a high tide
That keeps pushing me away
I thought that we would build this together
But everything I touch just seems to break
Am I your sail or your anchor?
Am I the calm or the hurricane?
I feel the ground start to shake
I hear a voice shouting, no!
But there is no fking way I d leave you

[Refrão]

So I ll just hold you like a hand grenade
You touch me like a razor blade
I wish there was some other way right now
Like a house on fire we re wrapped in flames
I d burn you if that s what it takes
To let you know I won t let go of you
But is the soundtrack to our lives
The bang of a slamming door?
What happens when we all start to feel like
Nothing matters anymore?

Every day like a chambered round

C

A trigger pulled, a hammer click

G

A breath we hold, a world outside I can't control

Am

And how is it a thing?

G

That we just wanna hurt each other

F

I'm waiting on for rain

G

Feels like is gonna rain forever

Am

Someday you will learn

G

That all I ever did was for you

F

And I would do it all again

G

I would do it all again
