Been Lying Rita Ora

Bm

Intro: D Don t wear my shades to be cool I wear them to hide my tears from you BmBehind the smoke I m so red eye BmAnd I m tired of you asking why I said I ve been lying to you And I ve been lying to me too D My heart has been through hell and back I ve only dressed in pretty and black Middle finger when it comes to love Act like I don t really give a fuck Cause I ve been lying to you I said I ve been lying to me too I ve been lying, lying to you Baby I ve been lying, lying to me, too I ve been lying, lying to you Baby I ve been lying, lying to me, too I don t always say what I want to say I tattoo myself to show my pain Lonely in a crowded space

Even though we re both face to face

Cause I ve been lying to you
Said I ve been lying to me too
Hurry up and wake for the spotlight
Looks like another whisky night
What s inside I never expose
They only see what the camera shows
Cause I ve been lying to you
Said I ve been lying to me too, noo
I ve been lying, lying to you
Baby I ve been lying, lying to me, too
I ve been lying, lying to you
Baby I ve been lying, lying to me, too
It s like the whole world s getting at me
Tryin to make everyone happy, that ain t me
Walking around, wearing a smile, but deep down
Bm
I m really fucked up, this ain t me
I don t wanna quit, tryin to hang with this
And figure out who the hell I am
I don t mean to make you run away
But I don t wanna forget to be me
D
 D Bm Bm
The truth is I don t wanna lose you
But I don t wanna lose me too
I ve been lying, lying to you
Baby I ve been lying, lying to me, too
```
