

If I Still Own A Bible
River City Extension

It s really easy and really awesome.

Capo 3, chords relative to capo

Intro - Am C Am C

Am C
Talking to myself in a breezeway
Am C
Putting down anything that I find
Am C
Be it liquor, or candy, or sadness or brandy
Dm Am G
Or your words so soft and so kind

Am C
I wonder if I still own a bible
Am C
If my fingerprints still sit on that page
Am C
The one about love, and why it s so patient
Dm Am G
And why I have lost it with age

Am C Am C

Am C
An answer never seems to escape me
Am C
But now I m feeling lost my dear god
Am C
I am sour and dry if I could I would cry
Dm Am G
But my eyes barely open for sunlight

Am C
I hate the way that you always think I m
Am C
you think I m out to accuse for attack
Am C
But I try and smile, cause after a while
Dm G Am
I know you ll be smiling back
F G
Yeah, I know you ll be smiling

Am G C

Am G C
Am G C
Dm Am G

Am C
Oh, and I wonder, do I still own a bible?

Am C
Do my parents, do they really believe?

Am
Cause they know I've been hurt

C
And if there's one thing I've learned

Dm G Am
Don't put your trust in anyone or anything

Am
I said there ain't nothing to learn

C
Except pages they burn

Am C
And people they change just like me

Dm G Am
So baby, don't put your trust in anyone or anything

Am C Am G C

If for some reason they ever see this, thanks to Sam for asking Joe about this song for me, and thanks to Joe and Mike for signing my Pop Tart wallet in Massachusetts. In the likely event that I screwed these chords up, I'm sorry.
