Subject: CRD: The Long Run - Rob Frazier

this is my first complete attempt at working out a song and although it works I know there are places where it can be improved. If anyone knows the song I d appreciate it if they could make any suggestions as to how I can improve it. Enjoy.

THE LONG RUN Rob Frazier

INTRO: G D G D Em D G C D

They never said it d be easy

Two hearts trying to pull together

How many lose their love along the way
