You Have Nothing To Fear Rob Gardner [Intro] F#m G F#m G A [Verse 1] F#m You have nothing to fear from the journey F#m Though your way may be burdened by thorns F#m For the Lord will be with you each step of the way BmAs you travel with faith through the storm F#m And you we nothing to fear from your trials F#m Though they seem far too heavy to bear Take His hand and He ll lead you gently along Bm A D F#m And you ll find peace and safety there [Verse 2] F#m You have nothing to fear from the journey D F#m G Though your body is tired and worn F#m For the Lord will send angels to lift up your arms Em \mathbf{Bm} And He ll carry the burden you ve born D F#m And you we nothing to fear from your suff ring F#m Nor the grief you we been called on to bear D Take His hand and He ll lead you gently along BmF#m And you ll find peace and safety there [Bridge] G There is nothing to fear from the nights that are lonely G

There s nothing to fear from the cold! There is nothing to fear from what might be tomorrow F#m D A For heaven is with you, And angels watch over His fold [Verse 3] F#m You have nothing to fear from the journey D F#m G A Though it seems far too early to go. F#m G Heaven s angels will take you where tears are no more Bm C A Em And they ll lead you to glory untold. D F#m And you ve nothing to fear from your sorrow, D F#m G A Though your life has been burdened by care. A D A Bm Take His hand and He ll lead you safely back home Bm A D F#m G A D And you ll rest from your labors there.