What's your problem, girl?
                  Cadd9
And the weight of their smiles just
                  D                    G
Too much for you to bear
                  Cadd9
When they all make you feel
                  D                    Am
Like you're a problem girl
