Well there s three versions of this story mine & yours and then the truth

B C#m B/D E B/D C#

And we can put it down to circumstance, our childhood, then our youth

F#7 G#m (B/F)

E B C#m B/D

Out of some sentimental gain I wanted you to feel my pain, but it came back return to sender

F#7 G#m (B/F)

E (F#sus4 F#)

I read your mind and tried to call, my tears could fill the Albert Hall, is this the of sweet surrender?

B C#m7 E F#

What a shame we never listened

B C#m7 E F#

I told you through the television

B C#m7 E F#

And all that went away was the price we paid

G#m C#

People spend a lifetime this way

F#sus4

Oh what a shame.

B C#m B/D E B/D C#m7

So I got busy throwing everybody underneath the bus

B C#m B/D E C#

And with your poster 30 foot at the back of Toys-R-Us

F#7 G#m (B/F)

B C#m B/D

I wrote a letter in my mind, but the words were so unkind, about a man I can t remember

F#7 G#m (B/F) E

F# (F#sus4 F#)

I don t recall the reasons why, I must have meant them at the time, is this the sound of surrender?

B C#m7 E F#

What a shame we never listened

B C#m7 E F#

I told you through the television

B C#m7 E F#

And all that went away was the price we paid

G#m C#
 People spend a lifetime this way
G#m C#
 And that s how they stay
F#
 Oh what a shame.

B G#m C# C#m7 F# B
 Words come easy, when they re true
B G#m C# C#m7 F# B
 Words come easy, when they re true

C#
 Oh what a shame, what a shame
C#m B
 Such a shame, what a shame
