```
Your Gay Friend
Robbie Williams
G# - / Fm / Eb
G# / Fm / Bbm / C#
A woo-hoo!
G#
                            Fm
                                 Eb
Hey hey, here comes no-one
                                       Bbm
                                             C#
                   Fm
Another friend for you to have a go on
                                              Eb
                       Fm
And she asks me, do I miss her when she?s gone?
G#
                  Bbm
     Fm
And I reply, ?As much as I miss anyone?
G#
Oh! A woo-hoo
G#
       Eb
And I?ll be your gay friend
                 C#
         G#/B
Cos your marriage never ends
Till we fuck and fight again
          G#/B
                   C#
There?s a space between us
G# Eb
So jump into my bed
         G#/B
                 C#
                                  G#
We?ll pretend the world is dead
                 Fm
And always in my head
     G#/B
             C#
                       G#
Is a face between us Hey Lord, forgive us we?re wrong
I?ll make sure that he never hears this song
And she says that I?m the opposite of a Hallmark card
She asks me how I?m feeling, well, I don?t wanna think that hard
Chorus
Bbm
          G#
                     C#
It?s the late show now
    Eb
How does the late show end?
         Gm
                      G#
Well, if god is in the details
```

I have a friend again

C#

G#

Thank god that you?re my friend

Eb Fm Gn

You are my friend again

G# Eb Fm G#/B C#

My gay friend Oh! A woo-hoo!

G# / Eb / Fm / G# C# / G# / Eb / Fm / G# C# / G#/B C# / G#

Chorus