Copenhagen

by Robert Earl Keen Jr.

C F
Now, I went out last Sunday with my little Mary-Ann
G C
She said please stay still Monday, and grabbed me by my can
C F
She laid a big one on me, suprised me with her tounge,
G C
But her suprise was waitin there, between my cheek and gum.

Chorus:

C
Copenhagen, what a wad of flavor.
C G
Copenhagen, you can see it in my smile.
C
Copenhagen, do yourself a favor.
C G C
Chew Copenhagen, drive them pretty girls wild.

So I went to the movies with my little Peggy-Sue,
I had my dip there in my lip just like I always do.
She didn t know that I was spittin in my Coca-Cola cup, she took a great big swoller and threw her popcorn up! Oh!

Chorus:

The moral of this story is so very sad but true.
If you stay till breakfast friend, they ll want to marry you.
So try my little method and I promise you no doubt
Dip some Copenhagen if you want to snuff em out.

This song has a great little intro to each verse. It goes something like this....
