Sing One for Sisiter
by Robert Earl Keen Jr.

[tab]D A7 G A7 D
Summer Sunday evenings around the old homeplace[/tab]
[tab]G D A7
I would play my guitar sister d sing along[/tab]
[tab]D A7 G A7 D
Sister s smile would always light up my daddy s face[/tab]
[tab]G D A7 D
When they d get to dancing, they d dance all night till dawn[/tab]

CHORUS:

[tab] G D
I would sing one for sister[/tab]
[tab]G D
Play for Papa[/tab]
[tab]G D
Moan one for Mama[/tab]
[tab] A7 D
and I d cry one for you[/tab]

Mama liked the slow one s. She d shuffle cross the floor
Sister liked the fast one s Lord she could step so high
I could see my Daddy dancing "til he could dance no more
When I d play a sad song you would start to cry

Chorus:

Break:

Now its just me and this old guitar I ve no place to call my own
Mama and Papa have passed away, sister s settled down
You ran off and left me to live here all alone
Now all I play is sad old songs since your leavin town
