

A Place To Hide Away

Robert Forster

Robert Forster - A Place To Hide Away

<http://www.robertforster.net/rfevangelist.html>

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=kIe7VoqpB6c>

For the G D/F# C emphasise the 6th string G,F#, then 5th string C. For the rest of the chords you can precede the strumming of each chord by plucking the 5th string on the C, 4th on D and 6th on G...

D/F# 200232

tabbed by

--Art

No Capo

C D G C

C D G C
Lightning cracks the convent mist curls to the bells
C D G C
Trees run down to the road protect the convent girls
C D G Â D/F#Â Â C
A Sister somewhere bows her head to pray
C D G C
Offer protection, a place to hide away

C D G C

C D G C
Deep in Sherwood Forest the elves keep to themselves
C D G C
No one is scarecrow the witch has no spells
C D G D/F# Â Â C
A map of tree tops a road thatâ€™s made of clay
C D G C
Itâ€™s hard to get to, a place to hide away

C D G C C D G C

C D G C
Iâ€™m thinking of Mondaino Iâ€™m thinking of Greece
C D G C
Iâ€™m thinking a walled city to give me my peace
C D G D/F#Â Â C

I might take up teaching I have a lot to say

C D G C

At a roundtable, at a place to hide away

C D G D/F# ^ ^ C

I might take you up on one fine sunny day

C D G

I might take you up to a place to hide away