

Pandanus

Robert Forster

Robert Forster - Pandanus

Intro: A E A E

A E
It was one day at five thirty

B E
I went down to the beach

A E
The afternoon was dying

B
There was purple at its feet

A E
I love the shades of nightfall

B E
The faded blues and greys

A E
The silver on the water

B C#m A E B A E
Seems to push so many things away, all away

A E
The candle of the day

B E
Has burnt down to wick

A E
The candle of the night

B
Has not yet been lit

A E
One hour and five minutes

B E
That's all I ever need

A E
To take the faith from the mothership

B C#m A E B A E
See the glory god this is what I need, what I need what I need

Solo: A E A E A E B

A E
One hour in that air

B E
Some gentle people there

A E

Nothingâ€™s going to get you or bring you down

B

C#m

A

E

B

A

The sun has gone and itâ€™s taken your troubles somewhere, somewhere

Outro: E

A

E

B

A

E

A

E

A

E

A

E

B

A

E ... ..

...