Junebug
Robert Francis

hey
I used half a year to play this song well can. but it was worth it. this is not a new tab on ultimate guitar, I actually only added the intro. have fun playing it,
and who finds fault, it must retain. forgive me my crappy english. oh, and here is the link where u can see that this chords are right!

E   C#m
Junebug, I remember everything.
Bsus2   Asus2
The blue carpeted floors, the tall wooden doors, I held you in my arms.
E   C#m
Junebug, I d burn down a picture of a house, Bsus2   Asus2
say it was ours, when we didn t need it anymore.
Asus2   Bsus2

And that was when I loved you best.
Asus2   Bsus2
We were kids then. We shouldn t think about the rest.

woo-hoo-hoo
E Asus2 C#m Bsus2   E (play these chords quickly)

E
You d put the moon in a basket on your bike front by the coast.
C#m
The way your face lit up in pale grief you were a ghost.
Bsus2
You liked to play with darkness, all the universe could give.
Asus2
I was the home you once tried to escape, the dark in which you lived.
E
And soon they d find you laying there on several different homes.
 C#m
 They d find you laying on their porches, did you need to use the phone?
Bsus2   Asus2
And lure you into their rooms, that was the last I heard of June.
Asus2   Bsus2
That was love I could not allow.
Asus2   Bsus2
You were beautiful then, you re just a coke jaw now.

woo-hoo-hoo
