

Change His Ways

Robert Palmer

A D
Deep in the jungle, he lost her favor
A E
Another gambit, he would have made her
A D
He gave her perfume, she used his razor
A E A D A E A
And decided to change, Decided to change, Decided to change his ways

A D
She was a gambler, he didn't blame her
A E
She had a dimple in her favor
A D
At the last minute, he always chased her
A E A
And decided to change his ways

A D
Life would be so much more exciting
A E A
If we could live it day to day
A D A
We could at least adjust the lighting
B7 E
To illuminate the way

A D
He took the loving that she'd been craving
A E
She took advantage of the saving;
A D
It almost ruin her reputation
A E
And decided to change his ways

A D
She wasn't crazy about his behavior
A E
She read it somewhere in the paper
A D
He was seducing a ballerina
A E A D A E A
And decided to change, Decided to change, Decided to change his ways
