

In Walks Love Again
Robert Palmer

In Walks Love Again " Robert Palmer

D C
We asked all our friends, where would this desire lead?
D C
Spoke to each other's hearts, willed it not to be a dream
F D
What would it take, but two in tune imaginations?
F C G
It was too late to pretend it wasn't real

D C
When in walked love again, cooler than you've ever seen
D C
In walked love again, showing us how it should be

D C
We were sure, this time, that we knew where one another stood
D C
Love runs its own course, too late to change it if we could
F D
Still questions came, now we were faced with trusting danger
F C G
We caught the blame, could we let each other go?

D C
When in walked love again, smiling like a lover can
D C
In walked love again, there you are and here I am
D
In walked love again

F#m Bm Em F#m Bm Em
My woman said: can you take it? I said to her: we can make it, yeah

D C
In walked love again, cooler than you've ever seen
D C
In walked love again, showing us how it should be
D C
In walked love again, smiling like a lover can
D C
In walked love again, there you are and here I am
D C
In walked love again, walking again

D C
In walked love again, walking again

D C
In walked love again, chasing after you and me

D C
In walked love again, braver than our wildest dreams