Your daddy he s an outlaw
And a wanderer by trade
He ll teach you how to pick and choose
And how to throw the blade.
He oversees his kingdom
So no stranger dare intrude
His voice it trembles as he calls

For another plate of food.

Your sister sees the future
Like your mama and yourself.
You ve never learned to read or write
There s no books upon your shelf.
Your pleasure knows no limits
Your voice is like a lark
But your heart is like an ocean
Mysterious and dark.
