

Bridge Divine
Roby Duke

Ok so I know this isnt how Roby plays it ... but it is better than nothing.
At the time I am posting this there are NO music and No lyrics on the internet at all for Bridge Divine, so I hope by getting this out there someone can improve upon it. If someone does improve on it email me and let me know!

Hope you enjoy!

Standard Tuning

D A A7
when the roll is called up yonder i believe that i ll be there

G F#m G A
though I am the same man with the same need as always

D A A7
so they say, the sole is free to choose a path, to each his own

G F#m G A7
we re livin in the same world under the same pale moon together

*Chorus

G D G A
and some change will do us all some good

G D A A7
its so good for one to find

D A G D G A D
that there is no stairway to heaven, only a bridge divine

*end Chorus

D A A7
they tell me change, change is needed to keep the world from growin old

G F#m G A
and we all have the same dreams for our children as always

D A A7
He formed the earth upon nothing, said to a stone, peace be still

G F#m
so what more could we give them than something that would keep them safe for

G A
forever

*Chorus

G D G A
and some change will do us all some good

G D A A7
its so good for one to find

D A G D G A G D A D
that there is no stairway to heaven, only a bridge divi-i-ine

*end Chorus

D A A7
they tell me hearts are torn asunder by the pain of movin on

G F#m G A
we re ridin on the same rails on a train thats bound for forever

D A A7
i hope you know your still my good friend when the saints go marchin in

G F#m G A
i would like to turn and see your face so be there

*Chorus

G D G A
and some change will do us all some good

G D A A7
its so good for one to find

D A G D G A G D A D
that there is no stairway to heaven, only a bridge divi-i-ine

D A G D G A D
That there is no stairway to heaven, only a bridge divine
