

Your Head Here
Robyn Hitchcock

Robyn Hitchcock & the Venus 3
"Your Head Here"
from Goodnight Oslo

Intro: Bm A E

Verse:

Bm G Bm
Bm G Bm G
D F#m E E (hang on E chord before chorus)

Chorus:

Bm A E

(I am not absolutely sure about these lyrics -- like the song describes, confusion abounds from time to time)

Everyone you said that you'd never ever turn into
Leave the hollow, shed the truth
Believe in what you have to do
Is so ... all of bone ...

Settle where the compass points
In the belly, in the joints
The president took meat anoints
Is sorry if I disappoint you
Oh, to be a stone...

I walk a thousand miles to be alone ...

Everyone you care about
Say you'd never do without
Walk away forsake or doubt
See them fade and flicker out
Faces on the phone ...

Everything that you rely on
Tentacles and blood and iron
Pillows that you want to cry on Promises that you get by on Life is all I own ...

You'd walk a thousand miles, and you're alone ...

Ring my chimes, I'm a ding-dong daddy
Step right up and see

Chorus: Bm A E

Itâ€™s your head here
Itâ€™s your head here
It s your head here
Itâ€™s your head here
It s your head here
Itâ€™s your head here

Everywhere you think he stands
Leave your shadow in the sand
Love the blossom in your hand
Diamonds grossly pandered
Into the phantom zone ...

Boys with meat inside their heads
Appetites that get it spread
All across the lily bed the lily pad is turning red
I love the way you drone ...

I walk a thousands miles, and Iâ€™m alone ...

Ring my chimes, Iâ€™m a ding-dong daddy
Yessiree, itâ€™s true

Itâ€™s your head here
Itâ€™s your head here
Itâ€™s your head here (there)
Is your head here?
Itâ€™s your head here (there)
Is your head here?
