Intro

Dadd9 A Dadd9 A

verse 1

Dadd9 A
I remember when you were only seventeen
Dadd9 A
You were the finest girl that my eyes had ever seen
F#m D
I guess you found it hard to simply just ignore
F#m D E
This scruffy beat up working class teenage troubadour
A E F#m
D
So we fell in love and I toured your heart with my out of tune guitar
A E F#m
D
You were wonderful you were mystical and the envy of all of my friends
A E D A
Seems like only yesterday under the stars on Brighton Beach

verse 2

Dadd9 A
Oh what a time it was what a time to be alive
Dadd9 A
Remember Janice and Jimmy Kennedy and King how they cried
F#m D
I sang to you the songs of Ramblin Jack
F#m D E
You were Greta Garbo and I was Karolac
A E F#m
D
And we played so hard and we loved so hard seemed we never ever slept
A E F#m
They were crazy days they were wonderful days and I loved you with all of my D heart
A E D A
Seems like only yesterday under the stars on Brighton Beach

Bridge

F#m D
Your daddy had plans that did not include me
F#m D
And he won't stay away from your door
F#m D
And I dreamed how I dreamed I could steal you away

Bm E
To some far off distant shore

verse 3

Dadd9 A
Then early one morning I awoke to find you gone
Dadd9 A
You wrote I love you baby but it s time for me to move on
F#m D
And so my teenage heart laid scattered on the floor
F#m D E
I swear to God I could not have loved you anymore
A E
And as I sit here tonight playing with my kids wondering
F#m D
Where you are in this world
A E F#m
D
Did you find your man are you happy now do you ever stop and think about me
A E D A
How I long for yesterday under the stars on Brighton Beach
