

Finest Woman
Rod Stewart

C
The finest woman that I ve ever known

C
The finest woman that I ve ever known

C
Shine a light on this love of mine

C
The finest woman that I ve ever known

F
My days were lonely and my nights were long

F C
My life was empty and my dreams were long gone

F
I was hanging with the brothers in crime

F C
My only lover was the rare red wine

G
I was just about to call a cab to take me home

F
Standing right there talking on the phone was

C
The finest woman that I ve ever known

C
The finest woman that I ve ever known

C
Shine a light on this love of mine

C
The finest woman that I ve ever known

Instrumental Break C F C F C F G

C

The finest woman that Ive ever known

C

The finest woman that I ve ever known

C

Shine a light on this love of mine

C

The finest woman that I ve ever known

F

She does not drink, she does not smoke

F

I rock her world even though I m stony broke, all right

F

She got the beauty, she got the brains

F

She brings me breakfast on a long silver tray, yes she does

G

Six foot one with golden eyes

F

Calculated rhythm running through her thighs

C

(Chorus)

Instrumental break G F G F G F G F

Chorus

C

The finest woman that I ve ever known (Repeat to fade)