

Finest Woman
Rod Stewart

C#

The finest woman that I ve ever known

C#

The finest woman that I ve ever known

C#

Shine a light on this love of mine

C#

The finest woman that I ve ever known

F#

My days were lonely and my nights were long

F#

C#

My life was empty and my dreams were long gone

F#

I was hanging with the brothers in crime

F#

C#

My only lover was the rare red wine

G#

I was just about to call a cab to take me home

F#

Standing right there talking on the phone was

C#

The finest woman that I ve ever known

C#

The finest woman that I ve ever known

C#

Shine a light on this love of mine

C#

The finest woman that I ve ever known

Instrumental Break C# F# C# F# C# F# G#

C#

The finest woman that Ive ever known

C#

The finest woman that I ve ever known

C#

Shine a light on this love of mine

C#

The finest woman that I ve ever known

F#

She does not drink, she does not smoke

F#

I rock her world even though I m stony broke, all right

C#

F#

She got the beauty, she got the brains

F#

She brings me breakfast on a long silver tray, yes she does

C#

G#

Six foot one with golden eyes

F#

Calculated rhythm running through her thighs

C#

(Chorus)

Instrumental break G# F# G# F# G# F# G# F#

Chorus

C#

The finest woman that I ve ever known (Repeat to fade)
