

Finest Woman
Rod Stewart

B

The finest woman that I ve ever known

B

The finest woman that I ve ever known

B

Shine a light on this love of mine

B

The finest woman that I ve ever known

E

My days were lonely and my nights were long

E

B

My life was empty and my dreams were long gone

E

I was hanging with the brothers in crime

E

B

My only lover was the rare red wine

F#

I was just about to call a cab to take me home

E

Standing right there talking on the phone was

B

The finest woman that I ve ever known

B

The finest woman that I ve ever known

B

Shine a light on this love of mine

B

The finest woman that I ve ever known

Instrumental Break      B E B E B E F#

B

The finest woman that Ive ever known

B

The finest woman that I ve ever known

B

Shine a light on this love of mine

B

The finest woman that I ve ever known

E

She does not drink, she does not smoke

E

I rock her world even though I m stony broke, all right

E

She got the beauty, she got the brains

E

She brings me breakfast on a long silver tray, yes she does

F#

Six foot one with golden eyes

E

Calculated rhythm running through her thighs

B

(Chorus)

Instrumental break    F# E F# E F# E F# E

Chorus

B

The finest woman that I ve ever known (Repeat to fade)
