D

The finest woman that I ve ever known

D

The finest woman that I ve ever known

D

Shine a light on this love of mine

D

The finest woman that I ve ever known

G

My days were lonely and my nights were long

D

My life was empty and my dreams were long gone

G

I was hanging with the brothers in crime

G

D

My only lover was the rare red wine

A

I was just about to call a cab to take me home

G

Standing right there talking on the phone was

D

The finest woman that I ve ever known

D

The finest woman that I ve ever known

D

Shine a light on this love of mine

D

The finest woman that I ve ever known

D

The finest woman that Ive ever known

D

The finest woman that I ve ever known

D

Shine a light on this love of mine

D

The finest woman that I ve ever known

G

She does not drink, she does not smoke

G

I rock her world even though I m stony broke, all right

G

She got the beauty, she got the brains

G

She brings me breakfast on a long silver tray, yes she does

A

Six foot one with golden eyes

G

Calculated rhythm running through her thighs

D

(Chorus)
