[Intro]

G

[Verse 1]

G

Here s a song I sing for you about a girl that I once knew

C

Julia

G

She lived in a great big house with golden gates where servants bowed

C

For Julia

[Verse 2]

Em

C

Unashamed I d sit outside and wait for hours

Em

C

Hoping that she d climb down from her ivory towers

Em

C

D

This beautiful girl as pretty as any flower had a hold on me

[Chorus]

G

Upstairs in my lonely room I would dream of being cool

C

With Julia

G

I lived in obsessive bliss carefully planning my first kiss

C

Off Julia

[Verse 3]

Em

C

One day I was feeling awfully brave and asked her

Em

C

If she d like to come on a date, I just had to

Em

C

D

She bent down and gently kissed my face and said oh someday

G D Em D C Am

Oh my god how I loved this girl

G D Em D C Am
But no one ever said that love could burn

[Chorus]

G
Waiting by the phone for days for a call that never came
C
From Julia
G
But love is cruel and has no wings but I still hear angels sing
C
For my Julia

[Verse 4]

Em C
I remember being overwhelmed by her prettiness
Em C
If only she would look my way I might be in business
Em C D
To tell the truth she didn't even know I existed, Julia

[Chorus]

G
Summer took her pretty clothes, winter came in grey and snow
C
Oh Julia
G
And I found out she'd moved away, her best friend said to the north country
C
Julia

[Verse 5]

Em C
Now all this happened many years ago my friend
Em C
Regrettably there is no happy end, oh no
Em C D G
She was 14, I was only 10, oh my Julia
