Verse:

|   |  |    |
|---|--|----|
| C |  | Dm |
|---|--|----|

Lady Luck why don t you pull up a chair
 Bring your shamrock wisdom darling over here
 Your Gaelic humor and your pious smile
 All the cats will be laughing tonight

 Now you may say it s a funny old world
 You may say that the game ain t fair
 Is there a plot or do you improvise
 Or maybe you don t even care

Verse:

C  Dm
 Lady Luck ain t you the fickle kind
 Why are some folks lucky
 While the rest are trying
 C  Dm
 You keep on playing it s still a mystery
 You re laced with a touch of inconsistency

BREAK:

F C
So why don't you give us all a break
F Am G
Make us all rich healthy and fine
C Dm
Five month holidays and a four hour week
F C
And a horse that wins all the time

Good Luck!

Verse:

C Dm
Lady Luck hear the mandolins
F C
Kinda makes you wonder how it might have been
C Dm
There go all that funny place I've got
F C
Back on the streets again

Verse:

C Dm
Lady Luck yeah it's late I know
F C
Allow me to buy you one more for the road
C Dm
Tell me something I've been longing to hear
F C
It's gotta get better next year

BREAK:

F C
Cause I've seen some rainy days
F Am G
My wedding suits all frayed and torn
F C
But now the sun comes shining through
F G
I've cried in my beer too long

BREAK:
