D I am a man of constant C sorrow,
D I ve seen trouble all my days
C I ll say goodbye to Colorado,
D where I was born and prob ly raised

C Your mother says I am a stranger,
D my face you ll never see no more
C But there s one promise darling,
D I ll see you on God s golden shore

C G D (2x)

D

C Through this open world I m about to ramble,
D dry snow, sleet and rain
C I am about to rob the mornin railroad,
D perhaps I ll die on that train

C I m goin back to Colorado,
D place that I started from
C If I d knowed how bad you d treat me,
D honey, I never would have come
