Intro x 1

You remember KC s bar, max fields after dark we were different people then inseparable never apart.

Now the novelty is wearing thin we spent most time arguing, it was all so easy then it will never be again.

Ho how soon we change, ho how soon we change, oh how soon we ch-ange, whoa how soon we change.

Bridge x 2

Thought i knew you inside out, but obviously i was wrong makes no difference what i say we just dont get along.

Face the facts it could never last, were drifting apart real fast i d gladly give up everything to start all over again.

Ho how soon we change, ho how soon we change, funny soon we ch-ange, oh how soon we change Ho how soon we change, funny how soon we change, oh how soon we ch-ange, whoa how soon we change. ....fade out
