

You Wear it Well
Rod Stewart

[Eb]I had [G#]nothing to do on this hot afternoon but to [Bb]settle down and write you a [Eb]line I been [G#]meaning to phone ya, but from Minnesota [Bb]Hell, it s been a very long [Eb]time
You wear it [A]well
Bb [Fm]little old [Eb/F#]fashioned but [G#]that s all [Bb]right [Eb]I sup[G#]pose you re thinking Aunt Betty s sinking oh he [Bb]wouldn t get in touch with [Eb]me For [G#]I ain t begging or losing my head
I [Bb]sure do want you to [Eb]know That you wear it [A]well [Fm]There ain t a [Eb/F#]lady in a [G#]land so [Bb]fine oh my [Eb]Remember those [G#]basement parties, your brothers karate [Bb]All day rock and roll [Eb]shows the [G#]homesick blues and the radical views [Bb]haven t left a mark on [Eb]you
You wear it [A]well
Bb [Fm]little late on the [Eb/F#]time but [G#]I don t [Bb]mind
But I ain t for[G#]getting that you were once [Bb]mine but I [G#]blew it without even [Bb]trying Now I m [G#]eating my heart out [Bb]trying to get a letter [Eb]through [Fm]Since you ve been [Eb/F#]gone it s hard to [G#]carry on [Bb] I want to [Eb]write about the [G#]birthday gown that I bought in town as [Bb]you sat down and cried on the [Eb]stairs You knew it didn t [G#]cost the earth, but for what it s worth you made me [Bb]feel like a million[Eb]aire and you wear it [A]well [Fm]Madame O[Eb/F#]nassis got [G#]nothing on [Bb]you [Eb]Well my [G#] coffee s cold, and I m gettin told that I [Bb]gotta get back to [Eb]work So when the [G#]sun goes low and you re home alone [Bb] think of me and try not to [Eb]laugh and I wear it [A]well [Fm]I don t [Eb/F#]mind if you [G#]call col[Bb]lect
But I [Eb]ain t for[G#]getting that you were once [Bb]mine
but I [G#]blew it without even [Bb]trying
Now I m [G#]eating my heart out [Bb]trying to get back to [Eb]you [Fm]Since that s been [Eb/F#]said, what s [G#]left to ad[Bb]dress?

The little man knows all ...
