

You Wear it Well

Rod Stewart

[C]I had [F]nothing to do on this hot afternoon but to [G]settle down and write you a [C]line I been [F]meaning to phone ya, but from Minnesota [G]Hell, it s been a very long [C]time
You wear it [A]well
G [Dm]little old [C/F#]fashioned but [F]that s all [G]right [C]I sup[F]pose you re thinking Aunt Betty s sinking oh he [G]wouldn t get in touch with [C]me For [F]I ain t begging or losing my head
I [G]sure do want you to [C]know That you wear it [A]well [Dm]There ain t a [C/F#]lady in a [F]land so [G]fine oh my [C]Remember those [F]basement parties, your brothers karate [G]All day rock and roll [C]shows the [F]homesick blues and the radical views [G]haven t left a mark on [C]you
You wear it [A]well
G [Dm]little late on the [C/F#]time but [F]I don t [G]mind
But I ain t for[F]getting that you were once [G]mine but I [F]blew it without even [G]trying Now I m [F]eating my heart out [G]trying to get a letter [C]through [Dm]Since you ve been [C/F#]gone it s hard to [F]carry on [G]
I want to [C]write about the [F]birthday gown that I bought in town as [G]you sat down and cried on the [C]stairs You knew it didn t [F]cost the earth, but for what it s worth you made me [G]feel like a million[C]aire and you wear it [A]well [Dm]Madame O[C/F#]nassis got [F]nothing on [G]you [C]Well my [F] coffee s cold, and I m gettin told that I [G]gotta get back to [C]work So when the [F]sun goes low and you re home alone [G] think of me and try not to [C]laugh and I wear it [A]well [Dm]I don t [C/F#]mind if you [F]call col[G]lect
But I [C]ain t for[F]getting that you were once [G]mine
but I [F]blew it without even [G]trying
Now I m [F]eating my heart out [G]trying to get back to [C]you [Dm]Since that s been [C/F#]said, what s [F]left to ad[G]dress?

The little man knows all ...
