C F Am

Verse

C

In the spring, when this thing began,
I was down, a dying man

F

And as I died and decayed, I pushed her away

Am

saying why don't you stay ?

Verse

C

Days turned to dust and my heart ran dry,
A compromise was a tooth for an eye,

F

I was under a spell, how could I tell,

Am

The truth from the lies.

Bridge

F

Am

And could this wretch really be restored,

F

Em

G7

I went out west, and the rain it poured

F

And there appeared a king,

G

G7

And he held his sword, over me.

Am

40 days of rain

C

Washed it away, Washed it away

G

Am

I knew I d never be the same again

F

I was lost, but I m found,

C

lost but I m found

G7

Am

And until I felt the joy and the pain

F

I used to pray for the sun

C

to turn the night into day

G7

G#dim

Am

And now I kneel and feel the frost on the ground

F

And I rise and I pray,

C

G

G7

Rise and I pray, Rise and I pray

Verse

C

I kinda had a bad idea,
I slipped into my deepest fear

F

My room one oh one, the end of the run

Am

The worst thing I d ever done

Verse

C

I couldn't get the pin back in
Where did it end and where did I begin

F

I tried to call it a day, day after day
